NEWS OF ROYAL NEIGHBORS

The regular meeting of Torrance Camp, Royal Neighbors, was held in Torrance Social hall Tuesday evening. Mrs. Mamie Kirschener, district deputy, of Culver City, gave an interesting talk in which she outlined plans for the membership drive which will begin at once. Torrance lodge members are urged to attend the district meeting in San Pedro, September 19. Costumes of 40 years ago will be worn at this meeting and a good old-fashioned evening is promised. Reservations to attend this meeting should be placed with Mrs. Adeline Smith, 1218 Portola avenue.

DINNER GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Howe and family, 1808 Anapola avenue, were dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hurum Reeve in Los Angeles.

American Legion Auxiliary News

One hundred Torrance people attended the dance given Thursday evening by members of the American Legion Auxiliary in the Elks hall, Redondo Beach. So successful was the affair that members look forward to another dance some time in the near future.

Mrs. Ann Gallucci, rehabilitation chairman, urges all members to remember to donate jelly. All donations must be in by October 1. Mrs. Gallucci will make her monthly visit to Sawtelle Monday, September 10.

Members of the auxiliary are busy planning for the style show which will be given in the Women's Club clubhouse, Friday evening, September 21, at 8 o'clock. The style showing will be given by Sam Levy's store with Sam Levy as master of ceremonies. Following the style show there will be bridge and refreshments. Watch this column for further details.
